ISA's History & Range of Halal Services

To Provide Unparalleled Halal Certification Services to Any and All Industries

ISA's Values Include Integrity, Accountability and Service
While Applying International Standards for Halal Compliance

Islamic Services of America (ISA), established in 1975, plays a significant role in the Halal industry both as an educator and a certifier. ISA partners with companies that specialize in the production of all consumable and non-consumable products and certifies those that are found to be Halal compliant according to internationally accepted Halal standards.

- We are a leading full service provider of Halal certification for over 40 years based in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, USA.
- Our Halal Quality Assurance team has auditors in the Midwest and on the East and West coast servicing the USA, Canada and Mexico.
- Our Halal symbols are recognized internationally in all sectors of the Halal industry.
- We uphold international Halal assurance standards for all global markets as set by the Halal governing authorities and religious scholars from the Middle East to Southeast Asia.
- ISA regularly reviews and updates administrative and operational quality assurance processes to enforce and maintain required Halal compliance and standards.

The Halal industry continues to grow rapidly to meet the needs of 10-12 million Muslims in America and nearly 2 billion Muslims globally. In fact, Halal goods are not just for Muslims. Halal products, just as Kosher, are readily consumable by anyone for the extra care and quality they provide.
